2009 SEASON NOTES

2009 Annual General Meeting was held Thursday, March 26th, 2009 at the Mississauga Valleys Community Centre in Program Room 1.

- Tom Mulford announced he was stepping down from the Executive Committee and would remain on board as a consultant (Past President) for the 2009 season. John Schiebel was appointed as the new League President of the Executive Committee. Along with his new role of League President, John Schiebel would also continue his role as Player Registrar. Also returning for 2009 were Bill Chan and Jeff Ingram. Bill Chan would continue his role as Web Site Administrator, build efforts with Sponsorship and take on the role of the Finances from John Schiebel. Jeff Ingram would continue to build on his role as City Contact from last season, and take on the role of Divisional Alignment and Scheduling from Tom Mulford. Glenn Stevenson, who joined on a part-time basis in 2008, was introduced as one of the newest Executive Committee Members and would take on the role of Discipline Chairman from Bill Chan. The floor was opened for others to join the Executive Committee.
- For the first-time at an MTFL AGM, sponsors/partners were invited to take part. Boston Pizza Square One was there to promote their Team Sponsorship Program to the League Members and provide those in attendance with some food. GS Promotions came out to meet with Team Captains directly as a means to provide a direct contact to a jersey provider.
- A new payment schedule was introduced that included a preferred rate. Teams submitting complete payment of the annual league fee at the AGM, would receive this preferred rate, those submitting it after the AGM would be required to pay the full season rate.
- In conjunction with the new payment schedule, the League Membership application timeline was also restructured to inform both returning teams and potential new teams whether or not their application for the coming season was confirmed or denied, more quickly. This was an important move for two reasons;
    a) to allow the League sufficient time to prepare the divisional alignment and regular season schedule based on a more accurate number of teams set to play in the upcoming season, and
    b) inform new teams with applications in other leagues whether or not their application has been accepted for the upcoming season, thus giving them the opportunity to rescind an application in another league should they chose to only compete in the MTFL.
- The 'game point' system (2 points for wins and 1 point for ties) was eliminated as a means to simplify the standings and move towards using strictly winning percentage and wins. This system would be more useful in divisions where there were an odd number of teams as it would account for the unequal number of games played at any given time, including those divisions with an even number of teams to account for postponed/rescheduled games.
- The League announced it planned to once again use the pre-determined playoff scheduled that incorporated the "one division plays on the same day" concept. The concept was introduced last season. The positive reaction from a majority of the teams on how smoothly it was executed and the amount of advanced notice provided, were the biggest determining factors on whether or not to continue with the concept. The benefit was that regardless of seeding at the end of the season, teams could make arrangements to be prepared to compete, whereas in the old system, teams would have to wait and find out which team they were playing to set a date. The League also eliminated the 'best-loser' format for opening playoff rounds for the upcoming season and future seasons.

- A triple-header schedule for the Mississauga Valleys was introduced for the 2009 season. This new concept would allow for more teams to have the opportunity of playing at the League's premiere field, and give the League the opportunity to grow by increasing the number of available games to be scheduled each week.

In 2009, the League grew to 35 teams, and increased to five divisions from the long standing four it had been accustomed to for so many years. The 'AA' Division was created. The League said goodbye to Bomb Squad and Mean Machine, and hello to Arrows, Brick, Lightning, Spartans, Super Troopers, ThunderCats, Trojans and Wolves. The defending 'A' Division Champions, The Gators, changed their name to Pinkofsky Gators, and Reggae Boyz became Ashanti Warriors.

38th MTFL season kicked off on Tuesday, May 19th, 2009, a couple weeks later than anticipated as there were delays in obtaining field permits from the City of Mississauga.

The League would again use the school fields of Glenforest, Cawthra, Applewood and Port Credit. The City of Mississauga underwent a heavy renovations project for the Mississauga Valleys field. The field would not be made available to the League until Tuesday, July 21, 2009.

The Mississauga News once again provided great coverage of the League by coming to take photographs and publish news articles about games throughout the regular season and playoffs.

For a second straight season, Boston Pizza supplied the Most Valuable Player from each of the Division Champions, with a certificate for 'Free Pizza for a Year'.

Boston Pizza Square One and the Toronto Argonauts were present at the 3rd Annual MTFL Friendly and 'AA' Division Championship. Boston Pizza provided the fans and players with some great food and the Argos had a football player, their mascot and a couple of cheerleaders at the event to add some spirit and excitement.

The League held an 'MTFL Argos Game Night' at the conclusion of the season in conjunction with the Toronto Argonauts Football Club. This would take place a week after the Divisional Championships on Friday, September 11th, 2009 at the Rogers Centre. The Toronto Argonauts defeated the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, 25-22 in an exciting come from behind win on 'Retro Night'.

2009 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

The newly formed 'AA' Division embarked on their first playoffs. The entire opening round of the 'AA' Division was postponed due to a severe thunderstorm. All games were played the following week.

In the Division Quarter-Finals, the Rebels defeated newcomers the Lighting by a score of 45-32. In a game between two new teams, the Spartans crushed the Trojans 41-27. The Hawks and Pinkofsky Gators (formerly The Gators) earned first-round byes.

In the Division Semi-Finals, the Hawks escaped with a win by defeating the Spartans by a score of 29-27. The Pinkofsky Gators easily defeated the Rebels by a score of 41-27, setting up a rematch of the 2009 'A' Division Championship.

The Hawks won a thrilling game over the Pinkofsky Gators, last season's 'A' Division Champions, 40-33. This is the first Division Championship for the Hawks since 2006. Andrew Agro of the Hawks was named the Boston Pizza MVP.

2009 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

The 'A' Division playoffs were wide open for the taking as the defending Champion, Pinkofsky Gators (formerly The Gators) had moved up to the newly formed 'AA' Division.

The two most thrilling matches came from the middle brackets as the Hustlin' Owls won in overtime over the King Gators, 17-16. The Saints also won a close one over the defending 'B' Division Champion Axemen 16-14. The top seeded Gamecocks defeated the Bears 39-20 and the Angels won their contest over the Jaguars 42-27.

In the Division Semi-Finals, the Gamecocks won a close one, 20-12 over the Hustlin' Owls. In a battle of heavenly entities, the Saints crushed the Angels 56-24.

Since 2003, the Gamecocks had made four previous appearances, only to lose each time. This time around they made it count as they won 35-16 over the Saints. Tom Mulford of the Gamecocks was named the Boston Pizza MVP.

2009 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

The 'B' Division Championship was up for grabs as the defending Champion Axemen were promoted to the 'A' Division.

The Reapers earned themselves a first-round bye. Gridiron was the only top seeded team to advance to the Division Semi-Finals by defeating the Steelers 28-12. Trailer Park Boyz upset the Razorbacks 20-12 and the Ashanti Warriors (formerly Reggae Boyz) defeated last season's 'C' Division Champion Meadowvale's Finest, 15-9. It was Meadowvale's Finest first-ever playoff loss since entering the league in 2007.

The well-rested Reapers narrowly defeated the Ashanti Warriors, 18-15. The Trailer Park Boyz stunned Gridiron by a score of 39-13, en route to their second straight Division Championship and setting up a rematch of last season's 'C' Division Semi-Finals.

The 'B' Division Championship showcased two very competitive teams that gave it their all. In a very close game, the Reapers once again fell to the Trailer Park Boyz in the playoffs for the second year in a row. The sixth seeded Trailer Park Boyz upset the top seeded Reapers, 31-26. Dave Elms of the Trailer Park Boyz was named the Boston Pizza MVP.

2009 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

The 'C' Division Championship was vacant as the defending Champion Meadowvale's Finest were promoted to the 'B' Division.

The opening round saw the top seeded New World Order avoid a scare as the winless Ghosts took them to the limit. The New World Order squeaked by with a narrow 22-21 victory. Greatest Show on Turf handled the Brick without issue as they won 33-0. In a slight upset, the Hurricanes defeated the Wolverines 25-19. The Kings stunned the Chargers 31-19.

The New World Order held up strong against a very determined Hurricanes squad and managed to win 16-7. Greatest Show on Turf pushed the Kings aside as they won their game 28-8, advancing to their second straight Division Championship with the hopes of winning back-to-back, this time in a higher division.

In a rematch of last season's 'D' Division Championship, New World Order and Greatest Show on Turf kept it very close and highly competitive. In the end, New World Order got the best of their rival this time around to claim the 'C' Division Championship by a score of 13-7. Patrick Espeut of New World Order was named the Boston Pizza MVP.

2009 DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

The 'D' Division Championship was there for the taking as the defending Champion Greatest Show on Turf was promoted to the 'C' Division.

Super Troopers and Gang Green earned first-round byes as the top two seeds. Newcomers, ThunderCats mauled Wrecked in their game, 31-7. In a very close game and stunning upset, the sixth seeded Arrows who were winless in the regular season and managed only a tie, defeated the third seeded Wolves 14-12.

The 'D' Division Semi-Finals managed to only be formalities as the top seeded teams crushed their opponents, proving why they earned first-round byes. Super Troopers blanked the ThunderCats 27-0 and Gang Green mauled the Arrows 39-1.

In the Division Championship, Gang Green exacted revenge on the Super Troopers who earned the top seed through tiebreakers. Having lost and tied to this same team in the regular season, Gang Green pulled off the win when it counted. Gang Green won the game 27-13. Kevin Garrick of Gang Green was named Boston Pizza MVP.
